Montpelier, Vermont, in November, 2007 - Over 10 years since their college band, singer / guitarist Shane Clarke, and rhythm section brothers Scott and Bill McGrath decided to get together to create music again. Driven by fresh inspiration, spiced by diverse musical experiences, and with a musical chemistry they had felt and developed years ago, they formed a new solid creative engine called November Guest.

On their first project, "The Island Pond Connection", they are joined by stand-out guitarist Bob Coons (Jerry Garcia Band), and extraordinary fiddler Patrick Ross (Hot Flannel, Bow Thayer and Perfect Trainwreck). The result is a thoughtful outpouring of emotion and sound - with a combination of emotional lyrics, melodiousness, rich chordal palettes, and groove. These tunes capture the essence of Vermont life, and stay with you the whole day long.
